LAB-F003 GMO Statement

To Whom It May Concern,

Roha USA LLC hereby declares that the following ingredients that are stored at our facility and used in our processing area may be considered as Genetically Modified under the EU directives 1829/2003 and 1830/2003, currently the FDA does not require labeling of GMO products:

Corn Starch
Partially Hydrogenated Cotton Seed and/or Soybean Oil
Maltodextrin
Soybean Lecithin
Refined Soybean Oil

Please check product specifications and/or ingredient declarations to see if these materials are present. Roha USA LLC follows standard cleaning procedures and GMP's to deter any event of cross-contamination. Products that do contain these materials may be replaced with an Identity-Preserved replacement, please check with your sales representative for more information.

Sincerely,

Michael A. Huber
