

FDA Registration and Bioterrorism Information

Corbion Caravan complies with all requirements of the Bioterrorism Act of 2002. Biennial re-registration with the FDA has been completed for 2014. Each facility has an assigned registration number, however, it is the policy of Corbion Caravan not to disclose the complete 11-digit number. Because the FDA is forbidden to confirm or deny a firm's registration status or the validity of a given registration number, releasing the complete number confers no benefit to the supplier or customer. Release of our numbers to the wrong party could lead to their abuse. Regulatory support for our decision can be found in Federal Register 2003, page 58895.

The last four digits of the FDA registration numbers for our facilities are:
