

Good afternoon, Mary.

I'm currently working with our Regulatory group to sort this issue out. Our refined glycerin is wholly produced by hydrolysis of vegetable oils as required by the National Organic Program of the USDA. However, because the feedstock oils may be derived from GMO materials, the glycerin produced cannot be certified as organic.

As I receive further clarification, I will respond with more information.

Scott Fenwick

Glycerin Technical Services

Archer Daniels Midland Company
James R. Randall Research Center
1001 N. Brush College Road
Decatur, IL 62521

217-451-3608 - direct

217-413-0874 - cell

Scott.Fenwick@adm.com